

AFTER THE POOL SELLERS.

Major Grace sends a Communication to the Police Commissioners.

Major Grace sent to the Police Commissioners, yesterday, the following:

GENTLEMEN:—I hereby transmit for your attention the complaint of Mr. A. V. Bresen, bearing date Sept. 6, a copy of which you will find enclosed. Gambling upon the event of horse races, and other occurrences of the day, through the selling of pools, has grown within the immediate past to an alarming extent, and its evil influences are working the greatest harm to the community. I have recently given the matter my personal attention, and careful observation has demonstrated to me that Barclay street, between Broadway and Church street, of which Mr. A. V. Bresen complains, has become the haunt of gamblers. The sidewalks in front of the different pool rooms are almost continually lined with men and youths who are interested in the game, and who are continually making noise, acquired after careful inspection, Mr. A. V. Bresen's complaint, so far as it refers to the condition of Barclay street, is an entire

It is impossible for me to understand how the officers of your forces during duty at this hour of the day, in front of these places, being aware of them, they should fail to suppress the evil, the insidiousness and shamefulness of which cannot be exaggerated. In this connection, I would like to call your attention to the following:
